

Our teammates are getting a new look!

Loomis is implementing new uniforms for our teammates starting in the first quarter of 2020. Made with dry-fit technology, the new uniforms are designed to complement the wearing of bullet-resistant vests and keep our teammates comfortable during the warmer months.

We are also working toward closer brand unity globally, and the new look will more closely align with that of our European partners. Only the look of our teammates is changing; all Loomis standards and protocols will stay the same.

LOOMIS IDENTIFICATION SYSTEM

Your role in protecting your assets

You could unwittingly turn over your deposits to uniformed imposters with fake ID cards. That's why we want you to be thoroughly familiar with our Identification System.

Loomis' dual Identification System requires all Loomis teammates to maintain two distinct identification cards, which customers are advised to inspect before allowing a Loomis teammate to pick up currency, checks, or valuables. These are:

- The Loomis Identification Card
- The Loomis Signature Card

To combat fraud, the Signature Card is secured much like the valuables that we are entrusted with and are only provided to teammates who will be signing for liability.

Signature lists can become outdated. Please reference ID cards at all times to prevent theft or other incidents.

The Loomis Identification System

Our Identification System consists of three important elements:

1. The Loomis uniform
2. The Loomis Identification Card
3. The Loomis Signature Card

Unless the teammate is wearing all three elements, and they are in order, do not surrender your assets. Instead call this number immediately:

877.877.0560

Here's what to look for:

The Loomis uniform

1. A Loomis teammate must always be uniformed while on the job. There are absolutely no exceptions to this policy.
2. There are two Loomis logo patches on the shirt, one on the left breast pocket, the other on the right sleeve. Please note that these patches may vary slightly based on state licensing regulations.
3. The shirt itself is black, and the pants are black (unless state law prohibits).

The Loomis Identification Card

1. A color photo of the teammate is at the top left of the ID card.
2. The Loomis logo appears to the right of the photo.
3. The Loomis branch name will appear immediately beneath the logo.
4. The Loomis teammate's name will be printed below the branch name, with a signature below their printed name.
5. Beneath the signature, there will be a bar code.
6. The card size is approximately 3 1/3" wide and 2" tall.
7. Beneath the photo, there is information concerning the teammate's height, hair color, and eye color, as well as a card ID number and an expiration date.
